Draft regulation regarding “Monitoring procedures and measurement of the electromagnetic field strengths coming from radiocommunication stations”

Pursuant to no. 2 of the article 11 of the Decree-Law no 11/2003, of January 18, the Board of Directors of ICP – Autoridade Nacional de Comunicações (ICP-ANACOM), by decision of May 15, 2003, has approved a draft regulation regarding monitoring procedures and measurement of the electromagnetic field strengths coming from radiocommunication stations.

The aforementioned legal procedures are important to all network and radiocommunication station users, namely mobile operators, broadcasting operators and holders of privative radiocommunication networks.

The draft regulation is available at www.anacom.pt and at the ICP-ANACOM's Public Enquire Services and the interested parties may issue their commentaries and present their suggestions until July 15, 2003, preferably through the Electronic Mail address regulamentoceer@anacom.pt.
