

Pedro Ferreira

Pedro Ferreira holds a master's degree in legal and political sciences and is currently completing a PhD at Minho University Law School.

Until 1999, he was responsible for the Legal Office of Postal and Telecommunications Services of Macau, where he worked as a senior technician. Then he joined ANACOM, where he has managed the European Affairs area since 2004.

He is 58 years old, and he is married with two children. He is a member of Broadband (a band he formed with other ANACOM colleagues), he likes books, enjoys cooking and comes from Benfica.

.